ION
ing was constructed as a police station in 1884-86. It was ic Works Department design by Lewis & Roberts, Contractors, for t is typical of two storey stations constructed at this time he Port Melbourne Station which also has a hip roofed verandah. n columns, the cast iron balustrading, and the high bluestones are extremely unusual. The paired upper floor central windows 1. The later wing (date unknown) detracts from the symmetry but is sufficiently compatible.
ing is substantially intact with face brickwork and stonework, ys and intact verandah elements. The raised verandah on a plinth and use of iron decorative work is unique to this type on. The building is in good condition and provides an tant streetscape element. Situated on the bend in Camp Street, ista from Mair Street and provides a strong focal point of s owned by the State Government and is brought to the attention Buildings Preservation Council. It is recommended for Government Buildings Advisory Council, for addition to the National Estate and for specification under Clause 8 of the Planning Act (Third Schedule).
