Description

51 Keele Street is a two-storey building of brick construction with a ruled rendered finish. The ground floor entrance is located within a semi-circular arched porch, and windows are double-hung sashes with simple rendered dressings. Above the first floor cornice is a pediment, flanked by scrolls.

Significance

51 Keele Street is of local architectural significance. The building is a surviving example of a 19th century small industrial building, combining a diary and residence. The building is of a typical terrace form, with modest ornamentation.
