

Description: A two storeyed former residence (?) in brick with stuccoed facade having ashlar markings and simple parapet enrichment. The entry is marked by an arched porch whilst the windows have simple stuccoed dressings.

Condition: Good

Integrity: Good

History: In 1891 William Kenneley occupied a dairy on this site. By 1904 Albert Williams was in residence here and by 1912 Jno. Cordwell.

Significance: No. 51 Keele Street is of interest at the local level as an example of a surviving small industrial building with recessed porch and gate.

References: Sands and McDougall Directories

Recommendations: Recommended for planning scheme protection.

Issue No. 1: May, 1995