

Building: St. John's Catholic School
Address: 77 Queens Parade

Allotment Reference:	Section 3, Lot 9
National Estate Register:	-
Historic Buildings Council Register:	-
National Trust Register:	-
Location within Precinct:	Clifton Hill Western Residential Precinct
Photo Date	August, 1988
Grantee:	Reserved
Original Owner:	Roman Catholic Properties Trust of Archdiocese of Melbourne
Present Owner:	-
Original Use:	School
Present Use:	School

Construction Date: 1906

Architect: Kempson and Conolly

Builder: Swanson Brothers

Description: A substantial two storeyed red brick with stuccoed dressings school in the Gothic style adopting a symmetrical form and detail unlike Education Department Schools of the period (compare other Collingwood Schools).

The recessed porch has an encaustic tiled floor extending into the intact lobby with staircase

Condition: Good

Integrity: Good

History: The present building replaced an earlier time school opened 6-3-1904.

Significance: The St. Johns School enhances the Church complex and compares with contemporary Education Department practice.

Recommendations: Recommended for Planning Scheme protection.

References: Rate Books

Issue No. 1: August, 1988