HISTORY	A remnant windbreak planting of Monterey Cypress and Monterey Pine along Bridge Street and Templestowe Road. Located on a topographical high point above the river flats. 'White Oaks' is a single-storey, double-fronted, timber, Californian Bungalow with a terracotta tile roof. The plantings and the group of Edwardian houses enclosed within, form a cultural landscape and create a link with the parkland along the Yarra River and with the garden trees from Heide I and II in Templestowe Road. The stand forms a strong local landmark and accidental gateway composition with the Red Gum at the junction of Bridge Street and Manningham Road. <table><tr><td>Creation Date</td><td>Change Dates</td></tr><tr><td>Associations</td><td>Local Themes</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>1.04 - Historic planted landscapes</td></tr></table>			Creation Date	Change Dates	Associations	Local Themes		1.04 - Historic planted landscapes
