HISTORY	A metropolitan park designed for family, passive recreation. Park facilities include a linear car park, a foot and bike path circuit and barbeques. Vegetation consists of remnant River Red Gums along the Yarra bank, plantings of indigenous tree species (mainly Acacias) within the park proper and an understorey of mown or rough exotic grasses. A degraded horseshoe billabong is lined with willows and has a timber viewing deck. Replanting is ongoing. Creation DateChange Dates AssociationsLocal Themes
