

HOUSE

Place No. 190

ADDRESS 50 George Street
Doncaster

Last Update 21/03/2005

DESCRIPTION The cottage on this property has been demolished and only a Canary Island Date Palm survives. It was described in the Doncaster & Templestowe Heritage Study (1991) as follows:

'Intact and in excellent condition this single-storey, double-fronted, Californian Bungalow has a gable roof. There is a major gable across the site with a minor gable facing the centre. This projects as the verandah. It is clad with shingles with post pairs and geometric fretwork brackets. There are large mature trees including a date palm.'
