

THANET

Place No. 185

ADDRESS 79 King Street
Doncaster Last Update

DESCRIPTION The house on this property has been demolished. It was described in the Doncaster & Templestowe Heritage Study (1991) as follows:

"Thanet is a single-storey California Bungalow of major and minor gables facing the street. The major gable projects at the right-hand side. There is a verandah around the angle, supported on post pairs on brick piers. "Thanet" is situated behind a row of large cypresses and a gable rail timber fence.

"Thanet" is thought to have been built by A.J. Smith (an orchardist and one-time councillor) who owned the land in the 1920s and had an orchard in Tuckers Road (83).

"Thanet" was demolished on 6-8 August 1991, after the release of the draft Doncaster & Templestowe Heritage Study.'
