HISTORY	The first State School No. 2096 was opened as the Deep Creek school in 1878; it comprised a single classroom, with attached residence. The school building was moved in 1886 to its present site, far closer to the population and the school aimed to serve. Under Mr R Hobbs as Head Teacher the school was extended in 1919, the residence converted into a classroom and other rooms added. Community activities became a feature of school life; one was the planting of an Avenue of Honour in Blackburn Road, some of which remain today (see 194.29). [6] The school is a standard Education Department gable-roofed 60 type classroom. It has had the porches, galleries and the gable end windows replaced, although later than usual, in the Percy Everett period. Another sympathetic wing has also been added. Can be compared to Warrandyte South Primary School (195.12) and Templestowe Primary School (173.07). <table><tr><td>Creation Date</td><td>Change Dates</td></tr><tr><td>Associations</td><td>Local Themes</td></tr><tr><td>Waldau precinct</td><td>6.03 - Schools</td></tr></table>				Creation Date	Change Dates	Associations	Local Themes	Waldau precinct	6.03 - Schools
