HISTORY	An early timber, double fronted, gable-roofed cottage. It has a later (Edwardian?) bullnosed verandah with chamfered posts, and a recent balustrade. The verandah returns on the right hand side where it is infilled. There is a timber finial. The doors and windows were replaced in the 1940s.
	Little is known of the history of this cottage, but it is thought to date from at least the 1870s.
