

Manningham Heritage Garden & Significant Tree Study

Significant Tree Information Sheet

Tree Identification No.: 47

Botanical Name: Pinus brutia

Common Name: Turkish Pine

Location: Zerbes Reserve,
293 Blackburn Road,
Doncaster East

Private land		Public land	X
--------------	--	-------------	---

Melway Ref: 34 C10

Setting/Position: Near the Brush Box Avenue of Honour, against Saxonwood Road

No. of trees: 1

Height: 8.5m

Canopy Spread (m) E-W: 5.9m
N-S: 4.7m

DBH: 280mm

Approx. Age of Tree: 71years

TPZ: 3.4m CRZ: 2.1m

Category of Significance:

Horticultural Value		Location or context		Rare or localised	X	Particularly old		Outstanding size
Aesthetic value	X	Curious growth form		Historic value	X	Aboriginal culture		Outstanding eg. of species

Level of Significance: Local

History: Collected and grown from a seed from the Lone Pine at Gallipoli. The tree was dedicated to the AIF on January 21st, 1934.

Health:

Pests/Diseases		Dead wood		Dieback
Stunted growth		Stress		Rot
Leaf necrosis		Low foliage density		Possum damage

Other/Notes: Some leaf dieback. Canopy is slightly sparse.

Health Rating: 2

Threats/Risks to Tree: None evident at the time of inspection.

Hazards/Risks:

Co-dominant branches		V-crotched
Irregular branch structure		Low-hanging branches (unsafe)
Diseased limbs		Other

Other/Notes: Tree appeared to have good structure at the time of inspection.

Structure Rating: 1

Works Required &amp; Priority:	None
Management Prescriptions:	The tree should be assessed every 2-3 years by a qualified arborist, carrying out works as required.
Existing Overlay Controls:	No Overlays
Statement of Significance:	The Lone Pine at Zerbes Reserve is of local significance for being a descendent of the Lone Pine at Gallipoli, as well as for its species rarity and high aesthetic value.
Overall Tree Rating:	3
Recorded by:	Andrea Proctor
Date:	01-09-05
ID Confirmed:	Andrea Proctor