

SORRENTO
CLEMENTS LANGFORD EMPLOYEES
WW1 /DR0392

*notes from Sorrento Museum: Netley house, Nepean Hwy, Sorrento.
 Named after 'Netley Abbey', Hampshire, this is home of the Langford family. The grandfather built the Spires of St Patrick's Cathedral, Melbourne. The property was bequeathed by Mr Langford to his grandchildren to share until their deaths and this is done on a rotation basis over a three year period. Names transcribed from a photograph of the Honour board.*
