

History:

Built on the site of the third tower proposed in the 1958 masterplan by YFGS architects, the land was until the construction of the kitchen supply building, unoccupied. Aerials taken through out the 1960s and other site photographs of the 1970s reveal the land as simply exposed earth.

Description:

A factory like building constructed in yellow-cream drawn bricks with aluminium framed windows. The lower level is open storage and office space the upper level is a kitchen, dry stores, cold stores, meat stores, vegetable stores and offices and lobby and waiting rooms.

Cultural Heritage Significance

Primary Historic Theme: Development of Bendigo Asylum

No significance

Historic SubTheme: Post War Development

No significance